

TITLE:

The role of management schools in the area of drug prevention in secondary schools

AUTHOR:

Jan Hally

DEPARTMENT:

School Management Centre

SUPERVISOR:

PhDr. Václav TROJAN, Ph.D.

ABSTRACT:

This work deals with problems of drug prevention in high schools. The main research direction is the implementation of anonymous surveys of students and management of some secondary schools. Recommended ground rules for the operation management of secondary schools in the area of drug prevention, including:

- Cooperation with parents and their associations throughout the year
- Cooperation of the teaching staff in the field of drug prevention throughout the year
- Adjustment of curricula with regard to drug prevention issues (as appropriate for all subjects)
- Permanent monitoring tasks in the field of drug prevention
- Good cooperation with administrative component
- Possibility of implementing the ten principles of drug prevention (recommended in this report)

KEYWORDS:

- The drug prevention
- Secondary schools
- The role of management
- Cooperation of administrative component